

CFC aims to connect ultra high networth individuals in Chennai

Chennai, Mar 7:

Campden Family Connect (CFC), a pre-eminent network for world's leading Ultra High Net-Worth (UHNW) legacy Family Businesses, their Family Offices and wealthy individual round-table meet in Chennai addressed the rise of Family Office space in India. Legacy Family Business Owners and their Family Offices attended the sessions.

The sessions addressed key topics like 'Demystifying Family Offices, Building a VC alternative portfolio in alignment with the Family's financial goals, perceived risk vis-à-vis actual risk' among others.

Amit Patni, Director, Campden Family Connect said, "Chennai is home to approximately Rs. 50000 Crore worth UHNW families with minimal number of them having a formal Family Office set-up. CFC's global membership network provides them with a platform to share their experiences and learn best practices from peers. We are committed to creating value for each family that we serve, value that grows wealth, strengthens legacy, and unites multiple generations with shared interests."

What distinguishes Campden Family Connect network is the membership criteria that enrolls only principals of families. The CFC networking platform delivers both local and global networking opportunities and access to international best practices in Family Businesses and Family Offices.